

The European Federation of Psychology Teachers' Associations

Conference Programme outline (provisional)

*Note: this outline programme gives information about the conference venue & provisional schedule. All times are CET.
A full programme with all the precise info on speakers, workshops and topics will be posted as arrangements become confirmed.
For full info, and to register to take part, or make a workshop / symposium submission, visit the EFPTA website.*

Thursday 16 April Optional sightseeing / cultural activities. Watch this space for more info.

Friday 17 April, morning Optional sightseeing / cultural activities. Watch this space for more info.

Friday 17 April – Start of Conference

Conference programme day 1, 13.30-17.00 (CET)

Venue: Srednja zdravstvena šola Ljubljana / Secondary School of Nursing Ljubljana

Address: Poljanska cesta 61, 1000 Ljubljana. <https://www.szslj.si/>

NOTE: timings of sessions within the two-day formal programme are approximate and will be finalised nearer the time.

13.30-14.00	Arrival at Conference venue: Registration at reception desk
14.00	Conference opens <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Welcome by EFPTA President, Mairi Rice, and President of the Slovenian Psychologists' Association, Professor Anja Podlesek</li> <li>• Introduction of Conference hosts, Lidija Srša, from the National Education Institute of Slovenia, and EFPTA Board member for Slovenia; and Maja Klančič, from the Secondary School of Nursing, Ljubljana</li> <li>• Introduction to the Conference theme – "Why (learning) psychology matters" – by EFPTA President, and Vice President Tinna Blåvarg.</li> </ul>
14.30	Keynote Speaker: Professor Katja Košir Ph.D. Department of Psychology, University of Maribor, Slovenia  "Psychology education as a context for fostering social and emotional learning and an inclusive classroom climate."
15.30	Break for refreshments and networking
16.00	Psychology teaching in Europe's schools  A series of short presentations on current projects/ activities in psychology education in Europe
17.00	End of formal Conference programme Day 1.
Evening	Conference Dinner at restaurant (details coming soon)

The EFPTA Board is very grateful to the National Education Institute of Slovenia, Ljubljana Secondary School of Nursing, and the Slovenian Psychologists' Association for their generous support for this event

Saturday 18 April – conference programme day 2, 09:00-16:00 (CET)

9.00-9.30	Arrival at venue
9.30	Workshop session 1 - Choice of parallel workshops/ breakouts
10.30	Break for refreshments, networking, and visit EFPTA members' national posters
11.00	Keynote Speaker: Professor Ana Kozina Ph.D. Head of Centre at the Pedagoški inštitut (Educational Research Institute), Ljubljana “Teachers’ burnout in focus: The role of social-emotional competencies and diversity awareness.”
12:00	Lunch including Poster session: posters on research and projects
13:30	Workshop session 2 - Choice of parallel workshops/ breakouts
14.30	Break for refreshments and networking
14.45	Workshop session 3 - Choice of parallel workshops/ breakouts
15.45	Closing remarks and preview of EFPTA Conference 2028
16.00	Close of Conference
Evening	Dinner at restaurant (details coming soon)

Sunday 19 April Optional sightseeing / cultural activities. Watch this space for more info.

The EFPTA Board is very grateful to the National Education Institute of Slovenia, Ljubljana Secondary School of Nursing, and the Slovenian Psychologists' Association for their generous support for this event

